Parking

May

May was filled with excitement as the Toronto professional sports season hit its annual climax. This month the Parking Department faced a number of challenges due to the short turnover time between games and last minute schedule adjustments. A number of parking and traffic management strategies were employed to ensure that all guests were accommodated during the shift in daily programing. The additional games played out of regular season by the Marlies, and Raptors had a positive impact on the monthly revenues; profits were above department expectations. The re-opening of BMO Field and Toronto FC home opener also contributed to the success of this month.

June

The month of June was the start to a lively summer; a number of events took place across the grounds and parking revenue was positive. This month we saw BMO Field become the new home to the Toronto Argos as they played their season home opener on June 23. This exciting addition to the event roster brought with it a new culture to the grounds. Football fans enjoyed tailgating celebrations in the parking lots to rally behind their team and generate additional enthusiasm before the game. Tailgate activities resulted in the loss of some parking space for the day; however the festive atmosphere was enjoyed by all.

With the Honda Indy hot on our heels, more space was lost for the placement of the spectator seating. Once again, parking management strategies were implemented to ensure that we met the needs of our guests and capitalized on parking revenues. Despite these minor challenges faced this month the department rose to the occasion and successfully maintained department standards.

IT/Telecommunications

Exhibition Place has been working with the City of Toronto on a refresh program for the main computer servers. The City's IT group has agreed to procure 4 servers that will upgrade the current hardware for email, domain validation and file system management.

After a successful rollout of the payroll/time clock integration project for the Housekeeping Department, IT made some minor changes to the system and rolled it out for the Labour Department as well. This framework also sets the stage for deploying the system across the grounds to all departments that utilize the time clock system.

IT/Telecom completed work on preparing for the relocation of staff to the 3rd floor of the General Services Bldg. This includes outfitting an additional POP on the 3rd floor for both voice and data services.

The Electrical Department recently completed the cabling infrastructure for the boardrooms in Enercare Centre. An upgrade to the Video/Data infrastructure makes it easier for users to utilize these services in the boardrooms.

Another enhancement in the boardrooms will be to deploy ChromeCast USB devices, which will allow for wireless video deployment from any ChromeCast compatible device (mobile etc.). IT installed and configured software to required departments as part of the digital signage system being deployed across Exhibition Place. This system will allow for real time signage updates to assist with the wayfinding project at Exhibition Place.
