The Chair and the Members of the Board of Governors of Exhibition Place, Management and Staff unanimously recognize, applaud and acknowledge Debbie Sanderson, Executive Assistant to the Chief Executive Officer, as the “Employee of Year” for her outstanding contributions to Exhibition Place and its Programs; her work ethics; her personality; and always going “above & beyond” the call of duty to deliver excellent customer service.

The Employee Recognition Program, launched in January 2011, had as its mandate the commitment of Exhibition Place and all our employees to continuous improvement to consistently offer customer service that exceeds expectations and to treat others as we would like to be treated.

The “Excellence in Action” initiative has grown since its inception and in 2013 recognized 433 nominations across the grounds for excellent customer service, and Debbie Sanderson was selected the most deserving Employee of the Year of this annual Award.

Members of the Board, Management and Staff applaud and congratulate Debbie!

The Chair and the Members of the Board of Governors of Exhibition Place acknowledge and applaud Debbie Sanderson, Executive Assistant to the Chief Executive Officer, for her dedication and hard work related to the 2013 United Way Toronto Campaign.

Each year in an effort to build a better city, the City of Toronto Public Service Staff, along with all Agencies, Boards, and Commissions participate in the annual city wide fundraising program in support of United Way Toronto, and Exhibition Place has participated in this program for the last nine years.

From September through to December, Debbie managed and organized a number of staff events and activities to raise funds for the program. This year, Debbie raised a grand total of $5,688.70 for the program, which is the largest contribution Exhibition Place has ever made since the onset of this program.

Members of the Board, Management and Staff applaud and congratulate Debbie!
